CHARLEROI MAN ANNOUNCED AS THE EXECUTIVE CONTROLLER OF STATE

S. C. TODD WILL BECOME ONE OF GOVERNOR-ELECT TENER'S CABINET

Appointee is One of Town's Most Substantial Young Business Man and One Well Equipped For Office

HOLDS POSITION OF TRUST IN BANK OF CHARLEROI

Governor-elect John K. Tener yesterday announced that he had tendered the position of Executive Controller to Samuel C. Todd of Charleroi, and that the latter had signified his acceptance of the position, and will therefore become one of Governor Tener's cabinet at Harrisburg as soon as the latter is inaugurated and the Senate confirms the appointment.

In selecting Mr. Todd for this responsible position Governor Tener has chosen wisely and well. No man could be found whose experience in life better qualifies him for this responsible position. His duties are to examine, and audit all warrants, vouchers and claims for the expenditure of public money requiring the approval of the Governor, and to inquire into the lawfulness or necessity of the expenditure. The Executive Controller can approve or disapprove of every expenditure, and he indorses his decision on each voucher that passes through his hands, together with a report it disapproved. In short, he is the watch dog of the State Treasury. He also performs such other duties as may be directed by the Governor. The position is one that requires the personal supervision of a careful and experienced accountant, with the exercise of good judgment and fearlessness in an effort to do right. Mr. Todd possesses all these requirements, and it was his ability as well as his high integrity that promoted his selection.

Although a resident of Charleroi for the past twelve years, and a foremost citizen in every public movement Mr. Todd is still a young man. He was born in Brownsville September, 1872, where he was educated in the common schools. Later he served as assistant postmaster at Brownsville, and in 1890 he was elected teller of the National and Deposit Bank of Brownsville. This position he held until 1898, when he was tendered the poistion of assistant cashier of the Bank of Charleroi in Charerloi, which he accepted and now holds.

Mr. Todd is a past exalted ruler of the Elks, and is prominent in the Masonic fraternity He is a prominent worker in everything that pertains to the advancement and welfare of Charlerui, and his freinds are legion. He commands great respect among the banking fraternity of western Pennsylvania, and his appointment to the high office of honor and trust in Governor Tener's cabinet will bring him a host of sincere congratulations.

CONTRACT FOR HOSE AWARDED TO FABRIC FIRE HOSE COMPANY

Charleroi Borough Council Places Heavy Order--Important Business At Regular Session

An award was made last night by Charleroi borough council to the Fabric Fire Hose company, of New York city, the contract for supplying 500 feet of fire hose to the borough. The hose is to cost $1.00 per foot and is to be double jacket, wax and gum treated. Four companies bid on the contract, the Eureka Hose company, the Goodrich Hose company, the Fabric Hose company and the Pittsburg Rubber company.

President J. K. Hein was in the chair and the following councilmen were present: C. O. Frye, Oscar Linn, and W. R Gaut Dr A O. Davis, Charles Schmieler and W H Calvert were absent

George C. Brandshaw, a representative of the West Penn Electric company was present, asking that council care for their high tension wire at Eighth street, where the portion of the street is to be disposed of to the Macbeth-Evans Glass company and a committee of council was employed to meet with the West Penn company and representatives of Macbeth Evans company on Thursday afternoon, when it is hoped the matter can be finally disposed of

The borough clerk was instructed to notify the Charleroi Water company to repair the fire plug at the corner of Ninth street and McKean avenue, and to raise the one at the corner of Eighth street and McKean avenue. Oscar C. Linn of the light committee reported that a light had been located between North Charleroi and Charleroi.

Reports of Treasurer E. W. Hastings for the month of November of Burgess George W. Risbeck for the month of December and of Tax Collector J. W. Mathias and Ex Tax Collector B L Parsons were read and accepted. The treasurer's report is summarized as follows:

Balance from last report	$5,260.60
Receipts for month	$1,168.49
Total	$6,429 09
Disbursements	2,201.08
Balance in treasury	$4,228 01

Burgess Risbeck's report showed that there had been 43 arrests and that in fines $76.15 had been paid, with time served amounting to $18

Tax Collector J. W Mathias report collections turned over to the treasurer for 1909 of $299 54 and of 1910 taxes $340.53. Mr. Parsons reported $61.77 paid the treasurer for 1907 taxes and $73.05 for 1908 taxes

PENNSY PAYS OUT MUCH FOR RELIEF

Benefits to Members of Fund Amounts to Over $29,000,000

Since the organization of the Pennsylvania Railroad Employes' Relief Funds, $29,571,266.75 have been paid out in benefits to their members This fact is brought out in a report issued by the company which also shows that in the month of November the benefits amounted to $189,386.30.

The Relief Department of the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie in the month of November paid to its members the sum of $129,452.75, representing $52,473 43 paid to the families of members who died and $76,979 32 to members who are incapacitated for work. The total payments on the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie since the Relief Fund was established in 1886 have amounted to $21,504,660.81.

Watch Party.

Miss Alma Lutes entertained a few of her friends at her home on Crest avenue Saturday night at a watch party. The evening was pleasantly spent with various diversions.

Mrs. W. W. Jimeson is spending the day in Pittsburg.

New Advertising Manager.

This morning Victor H. Austin began his duties as advertising manager for the Mail Publishing company, having been engaged for the place, about a month ago. Mr. Austin is an experienced solicitor and advertising man, and is well known in Charleroi, where he conducted several months ago the automobile and piano contest for the Mail and Mirror. W C. Ackison has been doing efficient work as advertising manager for the Mail the past month, and expects to go to Kentucky shortly to take a position.

Meets Tonight.

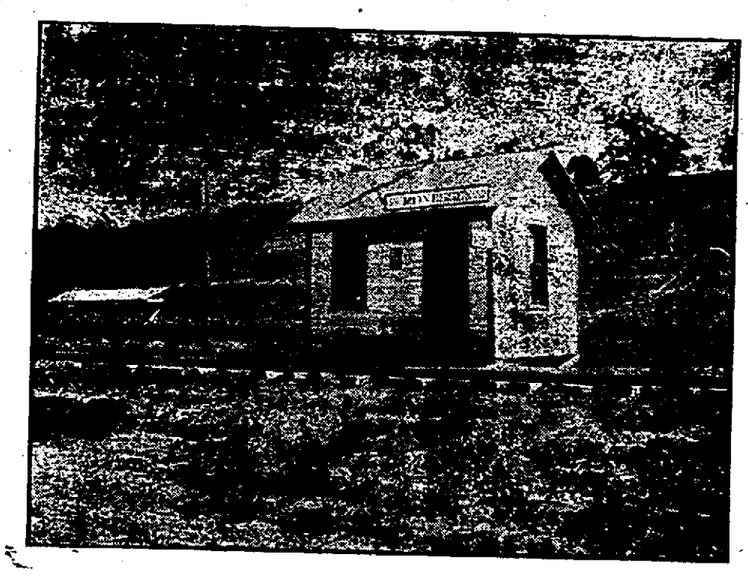
A meeting will be held tonight in the borough building at 8 o'clock for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a board of associated charities. All interested are urged to attend. No contributions will be solicited, the object of the meeting being simply to place the temporary organization on a permanent basis.

Gallo.

John Gallo, 3 years old, the son of John Gallo, a storekeeper of 210 Meadow avenue, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Miss Mary Hathaway, a student at California Normal spent Sunday the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Wright.

Steel Town of Upper Monongahela Has Great Growth in Few Years



Monessen in 1897—First Railroad Station

Monessen can lay claim, with about 2,000 of a lead in population to back it up, to be the largest borough in the Monongahela valley, this side of the suburbs of Pittsburg It has a population of 2,160 more than Charleroi, and is the second largest town or city in Westmoreland county. Monessen has grown rapidly as is shown by the accompanying cuts. The town in 1897 resembled a barren and deserted hillside more than anything else, but several months after, it was an enterprising industrial center. Monessen is out for a new county, and will support the movement strongly regardless of where the county seat goes.

WEST COLUMBIA PROPERTY SOLD

Big Deal Put Through for A. D. Scott Holdings Near Donora

It is stated that the property of A. D. Scott at West Columbia has been purchsed by the steel company, evidently for the purpose of building additions to the big mills there This brings closer the possibilities of a big steel bridge which some day will cross the river at this point to connect the interests of the big steel concerns at Monessen and Donora.

Many Attend Dances

New Year Dances in the Bank of Charleroi hall Monday afternoon and evening given by Jenkins Orchestra were well attended. Many were in attendance from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs B. D. Blaker and daughter Dessie took New Year's dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer near Fayette City.

Miss Maragret Owens of Pittsburg has been a guest of Misses Alice and Mary McKean of Lincoln avenue.

Guy Moffitt, a law student at the University of Pennsylvania, after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Mary Moffitt, of Crest avenue, left last evening for school. He will finish his course this year and take the State board examination in July.

Must Make Good

The practically unanimous nomination of Senator George T. Oliver for re-election to the United States Senate, and the selection of John F. Cox as candidate for Speaker of the House by the caucus of Republican Assemblymen and Senator at Harrisburg yesterday evening, not only sets at rest the stories about the opposition to Senator Oliver's re-election, but it indicates the spirit of Republican harmony that will prevail at the coming session of the Legislature. With this spirit and an assured majority to carry its measures through, a profitable session to the people should follow.

While there are no vital State issues at stake, there are many changes and additions to the statutes of the State that should be made which will add materially to the welfare of all. There is an honest difference of opinion as which of these minor issues should have the preference, and this different will no doubt engender much discussion. The importance of the difference measures to come up will be determined by the public senitment that will be aroused, and these will be supported or opposed according to the viewpoint of the various individuals and interests affected. This is but natural, but with all measures fairly presented and dicsussed, the majority rule should be cheerfully acquiesced in by all. The Republicans have a decided majority in the Legislature, but as this majority is the servant of the people it must make good to continue to hold its job.

A Great Opportunity

Every public spirited citizen should attend the meeting at the borough building this evening for the organization of an associated board of charities. While not many calls for aid are made upon the people of Charleroi, owing to a general prosperous condition of the community, there are occasional cases of distress that deserve and need prompt attention. An organized body to investigate and relieve all calls for aid will greatly facilitate the work, and at the same time be less burdensome to the community.

There are numerous other ways in which an associated board of charities may serve the community besides relieving the distress and material wants of individuals. It can aid in rescue work and help to save wayward girls and juvenile delinquents who for lack of organized and persistent effort recruit the ranks of vice and crime. There is good reason to believe that several young girl recruits from this community have been added the white slave traffic in Pittsburg and vicinity during the past years who might have been saved from this dreadful fate had three been any organized body to look after them and make persistent efforts to divert their wayward inclinations. This is one of the functions of an associated board of charities, and it offers opportunity for a great and noble work.

Licenses Applications.

The applications for license in Washington county that have been filed with the county court brings up anew a social and civic question that agitates the people more or less at this season of the year. This is the matter of distribution in the liquor traffic. In view of the many evils connected with this traffic the law undertakes to regulate it, and this gives rise to the great moral question that divides public sentiment on this issue.

Without entering into any discussion of the moral side of the liquor traffic, it is sufficient to say that a very large percentage of the people pretty generally are consumers of intoixcating liquors and demand that their desires in this respect be gratified. This being the case public policy becomes a matter of distribution. In this State at least public policy seeks to regulate and restrict the distribution of liquor by law, instead of permitting an unrestrained traffic on the part of each consumer. It is the wisdom and utility of this policy which divides public opinion and constitutes the issue on the liquor traffic. The license to sell liquor, for which applications have just been made in this county, conetitute the regulations and restrictions that the laws of the State impose.

As these restrictions rest largely with the courts that grant the licenses the judiciary can in a large measure control the liquor traffic within its jurisdicton. In Washington county, this surveillance is most strict and exacting. The laws governing the sale and distributon are rigidly enforced, and the traffic is restricted and kept within bounds. This policy of the court is generally approved by the people, who feel that the matter is in safe hands.

FOR CONSTIPATION

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless it Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notablefor their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c, and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

The Poor.

We all love the poor. It would be entirely unnecessary, if not positively caddish, to say that we hate the poor. But there are two kinds of poor—the individual poor and the collective poor. It is not the individual poor that we love; it is the collective poor. It is not the poor that we know and see, but the poor that we do not know and have neither time nor inclination to look at. We are afraid if we see them we shall cease to love them. We never say, "God bless the iceman, or the coal heaver, or the motorman." For them we find our execrations for not contributing to our comfort just so and so and so.

It is with great fervor, however, that we can say "God bless the poor," because the poor do not interfere with our comfort to the slightest degree.—Life.

A Deadly Weapon.

There is a horrible weapon favored by certain of the hill tribes in the Ghauts of western Asia, which consists of four sharp, curved blades hidden under the fingers and securely held in place by rings passing over two of them. With such a contrivance Shivaji, the Maratha hero, is credited with having disemboweled his Mohammedan overlord when making a pretense of rendering him his humble submission. The vagnaks ("tiger's claws"), as they are called, are distinctly more brutal than their western prototype, the "knuckle duster."—Wide World Magazine.

Its Destination.

"Here's a nickel," said a thrifty housewife to a tramp at her door. "Now, what are you going to do with it?"

"Well, mum," replied the hungry man, "if I buy a touring car I shan't have enough left to pay my chauffeur; if I purchase a steam yacht there won't be enough left to defray the cost of manning her, so I guess, mum, I'll get a schooner and handle it myself."

PILES DISAPPEAR

So Does Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Old Sores and Carbuncles

Under the influence of San Cura Ointment surprising cures are made so quickly that they seem like miracles.

Old sores that have caused the most intense suffering in body and mind, and that have failed to yield to any other treatment are quickly healed after the poison has been drawn out by San Cura Ointment.

Stubborn cases of piles like those of Rev. W. F. Gilbert of Titusville, Pa., vanish before this marvelous antiseptic Ointment. Mr. Gilbert writes:

"For 20 years I suffered with bleeding and itching piles; at times I was confined to the house for more than a month. Two years ago I began using San Cura Ointment and one 50c jar made a firm and permanent cure, and have not been troubled since."

San Cura Ointment is guaranteed by W. F. Hennings, who is the agent in Charleroi to cure any of the above named diseases or money back. It instantly kills all pain from burns, cuts and bruises, draws out the poison and heals in a short time. 25 and 50 cents a jar at Hennings.

GOOD BABY SOAP

San Cura is a healing and antiseptic soap; just the soothing kind that baby needs. It frees the pores from all impurities and prevents fevers, rashes and other infantile diseases. Best for anyone's skin, cures pimples and blackheads, cleans the complexion. 25 cents a large cake at W. F. Hennings.

Her Evidence.

"I had a colored woman before me as a complaining witness," said a criminal court judge. "She had a man held for trial by a city magistrate on the charge that he had attacked her with a pair of scissors. 'He mout' near gouge mah eye out, jedge,' she said to me. 'Jes' come at me lak a lion, he did, a-roarin', suh. He poke me in de face wiv dem scissors, jedge, not once, but for four or five times. He jes' cut up my face lak it was a yahd of ribbon, jedge. The magistrate what held him to dis heah court says he nevah did hear tell of no more dangerous man.'

"Well, I looked her over. She had a wide, smooth, yellow face that didn't have a mark on it. I told her to repeat her story, and she went all over it again, telling how the man had slashed her face with that pair of scissors.

"'But, madam,' I said, 'there isn't a mark on your face.'

"'Marks!' said she indignantly. 'Marks! What I care for marks, lem me ask you dat? I got witnesses, I tell you.'"—New York Cor. Cincinnati Times-Star.

She Had Courage.

A self possessed young woman who knew no French strolled into one of the larger downtown cafes. She spoke to the waiter in that decisive tone which distinguishes the initiated and glanced over the French bill of fare with the nonchalant air of a Parisienne.

"I'll have," she began firmly as she plunged into the sea of French dishes—"I'll have—let me see. Oh, yes, I'll have some bisque tortoni, a sultana roll, pommes de terre and a little of that fromage. And, garcon, you might as well bring me a cup of coffee."

The waiter gasped. He started to speak, but the young woman froze him with one of those icy stares peculiar to the thoroughly sophisticated.

And the order arrived—two kinds of ices, boiled potatoes and a piece of cheese. But she ate it as if she had been used to that sort of diet all her life.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Stories on Doctors.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle told several good stories of old fashioned practitioners he knew. There was one man, he said, who never used to wash out the half emptied bottles returned to him, but emptied them into one huge jar, from which he dispensed this mixture of medicines to his more obscure patients. "It is like grapeshot," he said; "one of them is sure to hit." There was another man who used to say, "When my patients are alive I don't know what is the matter with them and when they die I don't know whether they are dead." That was like the medical man who said to a lady whose husband he had been attending, "Madam, I have a very strong belief that your husband is dead, but if it is your wish I have no objection to a consultation."

Cute Little Girl.

One day while Katherine's mother was ill a cup of beef tea was prepared for her, but Katherine fancied it and drank almost all of it. Her father was about to scold her when her mother said:

"Never mind; it does me just as much good to see her drink it."

Shortly after this a dose of castor oil was prepared for Katherine, and she poured it into her doll's mouth.

"Why Katherine," said her astonished mother, "what did you do that for?"

"That's all right," Katherine replied, "it will do me just as much good if she drinks it."—Boston Herald.

The Danger of Criticism.

If you simply cannot help criticising at least be careful in selecting your victim.

A magazine editor to whom O. Henry had promised a story many times without delivering it sat down one day and wrote him thus:

"My Dear O. Henry—If I do not receive that story from you by noon today I am going to put on my No. 11 shoes and come down and kick you down your own stairs. I never fail to keep my promises."

Whereupon O. Henry replied:

"I, too, would keep my promises if I could do all my work with my feet."—Chicago Tribune.

The Battle of a Week.

The battle of a week was the great conflict at Tours in which Charles Martel overthrew the Saracens, A. D. 732. The members of the Saracen army are variously estimated at from 400,000 to 700,000, and the historians say that 375,000 were killed on the field. It is suspected that these figures are a gross exaggeration, but it is certain that few battles of history have been either so bloody or so decisive.

In the Mining Business.

"I think you said, Rastus, that you had a brother in the mining business in the west?"

"Yeh, boss, that's right."

"What kind of mining—gold mining, silver mining, copper mining?"

"No, sah, none o' those; calcimining."—Everybody's.

What To Do —FOR— Sickly Children

Letters from Mothers

"I wish I could induce every mother, who has a delicate, sickly child, to try your delicious Cod Liver and Iron Tonic VINOL. It restored our little daughter to health and strength after everything else had failed."—Mrs. C. W. Stump, Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. F. P. Skonnard, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes, "I want to recommend VINOL to every mother who has a weak or sickly child. My little boy was sickly, pale, and had no appetite for two years. I tried different medicines and doctors without benefit, but thanks to VINOL, he is a well and healthy boy to-day."

C. Allen, of New Bedford, Mass., writes, "My two puny children gained rapidly in flesh and strength in a very short time after taking VINOL."

We positively know VINOL will build up little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust. Try one bottle, and if you are not satisfied, we will return your money.

EPIGRAMS OF A QUEEN.

Witticisms of Marie Leczinska, the Wife of Louis XV.

The wife of Louis the Well Beloved had more need than most of the consolations of wisdom and philosophy. That she possessed them both in a marked degree is quite evident. "To great goodness Marie Leczinska joined solid information," says Imbert de Saint-Amand in "The Court of Louis XV." "She knew six languages—Polish, French, Italian, German, Swedish, Latin. Men of letters were struck by the shrewdness of her judgment on things of the mind. Several of her maxims have been preserved, which attest a lofty soul and a profound knowledge of the human heart. Here are some of them: 'We ought not to reflect more on the faults of others than will suffice to preserve ourselves from them.' 'Human wisdom teaches us to conceal our pride; religion alone destroys it.' 'To live peaceably in society we must open our eyes to the qualities which please us and shut them on the follies and caprices which shock us.' 'The women who pique themselves most on knowing what it is allowable for them to be ignorant of are those who care least about instructing themselves concerning what it is shameful not to know.' 'Many princes have regretted when dying that they had made war; we never see any who repented of having loved peace.' 'Good kings are slaves, and their people are free.' 'The only thing which can make amends for the slavery of the throne is the pleasure of doing some good.' 'In politics, as in morals, the shortest way to make men happy is to endeavor to make them virtuous.'"

The Pillory.

The pillory in England was abolished as a punishment, except for perjury, in 1815 and was totally abolished in 1837. The last person to suffer at the Old Bailey was one Peter Bossy, for perjury, June 22, 1830. Notwithstanding the fact that this mode of punishment was supposed to be only for the lighter offenses, it often happened that the pillory meant death to those placed in it, the culprit frequently being stoned to death by the heartless mob.—New York American.

Next Best Thing.

"Say, Mayme, did you ever have any turtle soup?" asked a rawboned youth of the girl beside him.

"No," admitted the maiden; "but," added she, with the conscious dignity of one who has not been lacking in social experience, "I've been where it was."—Lippincott's.

We're Opposed to Mail Order Concerns Because—

They have never contributed a cent to furthering the interests of our town—

Every cent received by them from this community is a direct loss to our merchants—

In almost every case their prices can be met right here, without delay in receiving goods and the possibility of mistakes in filling orders.

But—

The natural human trait is to buy where goods are cheapest. Local pride is usually secondary in the game of life as played today.

Therefore

Mr. Merchant and Business Man, meet your competitors with their own weapons—advertising.

Advertise!

The local field is yours. All you need do is to avail yourself of the opportunities offered. An advertisement in this paper will carry your message into hundreds of homes in this community. A MAN'S WHISKERS.

They Should Not Be Renovated With the Shoebrush.

If men would devote as much loving care to their whiskers as women do to their hair they would contribute greatly to increasing the dignity of the sex. A woman wouldn't think of coming downtown without having her hair properly arranged. She combs it, and fusses with it, and pads it out with rats, and puts wire cages under it, and runs ribbons through it, and she is a vision of loveliness when she appears in the busy haunts of men.

But a man gives his whiskers no attention further than to brush the eggshells or clam chowder out of them with the shoebrush. It never seems to occur to him that his whiskers might be made beautiful if he would devote one-half the time to them that a woman gives to her hair. He might easily have made a wire cage to attach to his chin, and then he could weave his whiskers around it in captivating styles and tie the ends together with a pink or blue ribbon.

The alfalfa editor gets tired of seeing the same old fashions in whiskers when it would be so easy to devise new and striking ways of wearing them.

There should be a whiskers club in Emporia. If such an organization were formed and the members had weekly meetings to exchange ideas and compare notes the results would soon be apparent. The town's whiskers would soon become distinctive, and their reputation would cover the country.

Let us have a new deal in spinach.—Emporia Gazette.

When the Hen Crows.

Willsford in his "Nature Secrets" (1658) writes:

"Beasts eating greedily and more than they used to do prenotes foul weather, and all small cattle that seem to rejoyce with playing and sporting themselves foreshews rain. Oxen and all kinds of neat, if you do at any time observe them to hold up their heads and snuffle in the air or lick their hooves or their bodies against the hair, expect then rainy weather. Asses or mules rubbing often their ears or braying much more than usually they are accustomed presages rain. Hogs crying and running up and down with hay or litter in their mouths foreshews a storm to be near at hand. The little sable beast (called a flea) if much thirsting after blood it argues rain. The cock if he crows in the daytime very much or at sunsetting or when he is at roost at unusual hours, as at 9 or 10, expect some change of weather and that suddenly, but from fair to foul or the contrary. But when the hen crows good men expect a storm within doors and without."

Lured Into Bathing.

In a railway carriage chat the other day a London medical man told a good story which had come within his own experience. A mother was frequently bringing her child to him for treatment, but the doctor could discover nothing amiss except its need of a good wash. She was certain the infant was suffering from some terrible complaint and begged the doctor to do his best. He prescribed a daily wash with the water in which potatoes had been peeled. Never suspecting that this was merely a ruse to get the child washed, the mother followed the instructions to the letter. Rosy cheeks appeared, and a clean, healthy looking child gladdened the mother's heart. She sounded the doctor's praises everywhere and advised other mothers to test the efficacy of potato water. It never occurred to her that precisely the same result would have followed the daily application of soap and water.

Some will always be above others. Destroy the inequality of today and it will appear again tomorrow.—Emerson

PURE GLYCERIN.

It Is a Queer Substance Endowed With Peculiar Properties.

One of the great advantages of glycerin in its chemical employment is the fact that it neither freezes nor evaporates under any ordinary temperature. No perceptible loss by evaporation has been detected at a temperature less than 200 degrees F., but if heated intensely it decomposes with a smell that few persons find themselves able to endure. It burns with a pale flame, similar to that from alcohol, if heated to about 300 degrees and then ignited. Its nonevaporative qualities make the compound of much use as a vehicle for holding pigments and colors, as in stamping and typewriter ribbons, carbon papers and the like.

If the pure glycerin be exposed for a long time to a freezing temperature it crystallizes with the appearance of sugar candy, but these crystals being once melted it is almost an impossibility to get them again into the congealed state. If a little water be added to the glycerin no crystallization will take place, though under a sufficient degree of cold the water will separate and form crystals, amid which the glycerin will remain in its natural state of fluidity. If suddenly subjected to intense cold pure glycerin will form a gummy mass which cannot be entirely hardened or crystallized. Altogether it is quite a peculiar substance.

A Spanish Ship Treasure.

In 1762 the largest bulk of treasure ever taken from a ship at sea was brought into London. It was the whole of the cargo of the Spanish ship Hermione, captured on May 21 by H. M. S. Active. The Hermione surrendered to the Active without an action, and the treasure was landed at Portsmouth and conveyed to London in twenty decorated wagons, with British colors over Spanish and an escort party of sailors. The strange procession reached Lon-

Westminster Hall.

Westminster hall, England's old hall of the king's justice, is one of the world's notable historical shrines. Built four centuries before Columbus sailed for America, burned, restored, remodeled, it has seen more history in the making than perhaps any other building west of Rome. Here some of the early parliaments met, and here the second Edward was expelled from his throne. Here Richard II. was deposed, Charles I. condemned and Cromwell hailed as lord protector, whose head, if the legend is authentic, was afterward exposed from one of the hall's pinnacles. Westminster hall was the scene of the trial of Warren Hastings. In it sentence of death was pronounced on William Wallace, Sir Thomas More, Somerset, Essex, Strafford and Guy Fawkes.—New York World.

Bad Manners.

The two women stopped in front of a dentist's showcase.

"There, mamma," said the younger woman, pointing, "I want a set just like that."

"Hush, my child!" commanded her mother. "Don't you know that it's vulgar to pick your teeth in the street?"

A Bright Youth.

She (archly)—Whom should you call the prettiest girl in the room? He (looking about hurriedly)—I'm not to tell the truth, there isn't a girl in the place.

LOVELY COMPLEXION

A Clear Skin and Bright Eyes are Easy to Get

All the beauty creams in creation won't improve your complexion if your stomach is out of order.

Belching of gas and heartburn mean bad food in the stomach. Bad food means bad blood and bad blood means a bad complexion.

Try Mi-o-na stomach tablets for stomach misery, biliousness, dizziness and indigestion. They relieve in a few minutes; they make rich red blood. They are guaranteed by Piper Bros. to cure or money back.

Read what a Kansas woman says:

"I had been doctoring a year for stomach trouble and found nothing that did as much good as Mi-o-na I only have the second box and they have relieved all pain in my stomach. For stomach trouble, indigestion Mi-o-na can't be beaten. Mi-o-na has done a world of good for me when doctors failed."—Mrs. Cordellia B. Mann, 207, 11th St. Junction City, Kan.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Despite all the efforts being made by advocates of fresh air and egg-and-milk treatments, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased.

Write to us and ask to be referred to Clergymen, Priests, men and women who took Eckman's Alterative and are today well and strong without a trace of tuberculosis—pronounced so by physicians. Some of them took the Alterative 10 years ago when doctors said they would not live 10 weeks.

Could anything be fairer to yourself and those who love you and would do anything to restore you to health? If you are skeptical—investigate us, our medicine, our advertised statements. Write to those who have sent in affidavits and testimonials telling how Eckman's Alterative cured them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen: "In the winter of 1903, I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful looking stuff and later, I had many hemorrhages; at one time, three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."

THE CHARLEROI MAIL

Entered second class matter at Charleroi, June 15, 1900, according to Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

VOL. XI. NO. 123. CHARLEROI, WASHINGTON CO., PA., TUESDAY, JANUARY 3. 1911. One Cent

Local Man Appointed | Hose Contract Awarded | May Ask for Licenses

CHARLEROI MAN ANNOUNCED AS THE EXECUTIVE CONTROLLER OF STATE

S. C. TODD WILL BECOME ONE OF GOVERNOR-ELECT TENER'S CABINET

HOLDS POSITION OF TRUST IN BANK OF CHARLEROI

Governor-elect John K. Tener yesterday announced that he had tendered the position of Executive Controller to Samuel C. Todd of Charleroi, and that the latter had signified his acceptance of the position, and will therefore become one of Governor Tener's cabinet at Harrisburg as soon as the latter is inaugurated and the Senate confirms the appointment.

In selecting Mr. Todd for this responsible position Governor Tener has chosen wisely and well. No man could be found whose experience in life better qualifies him for this responsible position. His duties are to examine, and audit all warrants, vouchers and claims for the expenditure of public money requiring the approval of the Governor, and to inquire into the lawfulness or necessity of the expenditure. The Executive Controller can approve or disapprove of every expenditure, and be indorses his decision on each voucher that passes through his hands, together with a report it disapproved. In short, he is the watch dog of the State Treasury. He also performs such other duties as may be directed by the Governor. The position is one that requires the personal supervision of a careful and experienced accountant, with the exercise of good judgment and fearlessness in an effort to do right. Mr. Todd possesses all these requirements, and it was his ability as well as his high integrity that promoted his selection.

Although a resident of Charleroi for the past twelve years, and a foremost citizen in every public movement Mr. Todd is still a young man. He was born in Brownsville September, 1872, where he was educated in the common schools. Later he served as assistant postmaster at Brownsville, and in 1890 he was elected teller of the National and Deposit Bank of Brownsville. This position he held until 1898, when he was tendered the poistion of assistant cashier of the Bank of Charleroi in Charerloi, which he accepted and now holds.

Mr. Todd is a past exalted ruler of the Elks, and is prominent in the Masonic fraternity He is a prominent worker in everything that pertains to the advancement and welfare of Charleroi, and his freinds are legion. He commands great respect among the banking fraternity of western Pennsylvania, and his appointment to the high office of honor and trust in Governor Tener's cabinet will bring him a host of sincere congratulations.

SIXTY-EIGHT MAKE APPLICATION TO SELL LIQUOR IN THIS COUNTY

ALL CHARLEROI HOTEL OWNERS ASK THAT THEIR LICENSE BE RENEWED

Fallowfield Avenue Man Presents a Petition to be Allowed to Conduct Wholesale House Here

LOCAL LICENSES ASKED BY ALL BREWERIES BUT ONE

Yesterday was the last day for filing applications for liquor licenses in Washington county, and as a result 68 applications are on record. This is three more than were filed last year. All the hotels in Charleroi are applicants again this year, as well as the Charleroi brewery and one new application for a wholesale license. This is Johan Leonard Schmalbach of Fallowfield avenue.

Forty-nine of the applications are for retail license where 32 were granted last year. There are four new applications for wholesale license where but one was granted last year, that of Harry B. Hayden of Monongahela. All the breweries that last year lost their county licenses are again applicants with the exception of the Washington brewery. Those that were knocked out last year and have again applied are: The Acme, Bentleyville; the Globe, Monongahela; the Cresent and Star, Washington. There is also a new application for a distillery licens eat Washington.

CONTRACT FOR HOSE AWARDED TO FABRIC FIRE HOSE COMPANY

Charleroi Borough Council Places Heavy Order--Important Business At Regular Session

An award was made last night by Charleroi borough council to the Fabric Fire Hose company, of New York city, the contract for supplying 500 feet of fire hose to the borough. The hose is to cost $1.00 per foot and is to be double jacket, wax and gum treated. Four companies bid on the contract, the Eureka Hose company, the Goodrich Hose company, the Fabric Hose company and the Pittsburg Rubber company.

President J. K. Hein was in the chair and the following councilmen were present: C. O. Frye, Oscar Linn, and W. R Gaut Dr A O. Davis, Charles Schmieler and W H Calvert were absent

George C. Brandshaw, a representative of the West Penn Electric company was present asking that council care for their high tension wire at Eighth street, where the portion of the street is to be disposed of to the Macbeth-Evans Glass company and a committee of council was employed to meet with the West Penn company and representatives of Macbeth Evans company on Thursday afternoon, when it is hoped the matter can be finally disposed of

The borough clerk was instructed to notify the Charleroi Water company to repair the fire plug at the corner of Ninth street and McKean avenue, and to raise the one at the corner of Eighth street and McKean avenue. Oscar C. Linn of the light committee reported that a light had been located between North Charleroi and Charleroi.

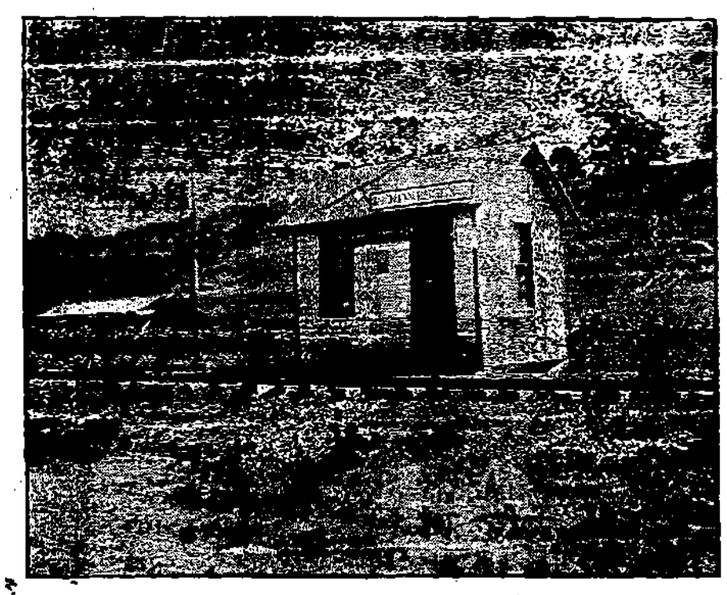
Reports of Treasurer E. W. Hastings for the month of November of Burgess George W. Risbeck for the month of December and of Tax Collector J. W. Mathias and Ex Tax Collector S L Parsons were read and accepted. The treasurer's report is summarized as follows:

Balance from last report	$5,260.60
Receipts for month	$1,168.49
Total	$6.429 09
Disbursements	2,291.08
Balance in treasury	$4,228 01

Burgess Risbeck's report showed that there had been 43 arrests and that in fines $76.15 had been paid, with time served amounting to $18

Tax Collector J. W Mathias report ed collections turned over to the treasurer for 1909 of $299 54 and of 1910 taxes $340.58. Mr. Parsons reported $61.77 paid the treasurer for 1907 taxes and $73.65 for 1908 taxes

Steel Town of Upper Monongahela Has Great Growth in Few Years



Monessen in 1897—First Railroad Station

Monessen can lay claim, with about 2,000 of a lead in population to back it up, to be the largest borough in the Monongahela valley, this side of the suburbs of Pittsburg It has a population of 2,160 more than Charleroi, and is the second largest town or city in Westmoreland county. Monessen has grown rapidly as is shown by the accompanying cuts. The town in 1897 resembled a barren and deserted hillside more than anything else, but several months after, it was an enterprising industrial center. Monessen is out for a new county, and will support the movement strongly regardless of where the county seat goes.

PENNSY PAYS OUT MUCH FOR RELIEF

Benefits to Members of Fund Amounts to Over $29,000,000

Since the organization of the Pennsylvania Railroad Employes' Relief Funds, $29,571,266.75 have been paid out in benefits to their members This fact is brought out in a report issued by the company which also shows that in the month of November the benefits amounted to $189,386.30.

The Relief Department of the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie in the month of November paid to its members the sum of $129,452.75, representing $52,473 43 paid to the families of members who died and $76,979 32 to members who are incapacitated for work. The total payments on the lines east of Pittsburg and Erie since the Relief Fund was established in 1886 have amounted to $21,504,660.81.

Watch Party.

Miss Alma Lutes entertained a few of her friends at her home on Crest avenue Saturday night at a watch party. The evening was pleasantly spent with various diversions.

Mrs. W. W. Jimeson is spending the day in Pittsburg.

New Advertising Manager.

This morning Victor H. Austin began his duties as advertising manager for the Mail Publishing company, having been engaged for the place, about a month ago. Mr. Austin is an experienced solicitor and advertising man, and is well known in Charleroi, where he conducted several months ago the automobile and piano contest for the Mail and Mirror. W C. Ackison has been doing efficient work as advertising manager for the Mail the past month, and expects to go to Kentucky shortly to take a position.

Meets Tonight.

A meeting will be held tonight in the borough building at 8 o'clock for the purpose of perfecting the organization of a board of associated charities. All interested are urged to attend. No contributions will be solicited, the object of the meeting being simply to place the temporary organization on a permanent basis.

Gallo.

John Gallo, 3 years old, the son of John Gallo, a storekeeper of 210 Meadow avenue, died at 2:30 o'clock this morning. The funeral will be held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon and interment will be in the Charleroi cemetery.

Miss Mary Hathaway, a student at California Normal spent Sunday the guest of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Wright.

WEST COLUMBIA PROPERTY SOLD

Big Deal Put Through for A. D. Scott Holdings Near Donora

It is stated that the property of A. D. Scott at West Columbia has been purchsed by the steel company, evidently for the purpose of building additions to the big mills there. This brings closer the possibilities of a big steel bridge which some day will cross the river at this point to connect the interests of the big steel concerns at Monessen and Donora.

Many Attend Dances

New Year Dances in the Bank of Charleroi hall Monday afternoon and evening given by Jenkins Orchestra were well attended. Many were in attendance from out of town.

Mr. and Mrs B. D. Blaker and daughter Dessie took New Year's dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Shearer near Fayette City.

Miss Maragret Owens of Pittsburg has been a guest of Misses Alice and Mary McKean of Lincoln avenue.

Guy Moffitt, a law student at the University of Pennsylvania, after spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Mary Moffitt, of Crest avenue, left last evening for school. He will finish his course this year and take the State board examination in July.

Must Make Good

The practically unanimous nomination of Senator George T. Oliver for re-election to the United States Senate, and the selection of John F. Cox as candidate for Speaker of the House by the caucus of Republican Assemblymen and Senator at Harrisburg yesterday evening, not only sets at rest the stories about the opposition to Senator Oliver's re-election, but it indicates the spirit of Republican harmony that will prevail at the coming session of the Legislature. With this spirit and an assured majority to carry its measures through, a profitable session to the people should follow.

While there are no vital State issues at stake, there are many changes and additions to the statutes of the State that should be made which will add materially to the welfare of all. There is an honest difference of opinion as which of these minor issues should have the preference, and this different will no doubt engender much discussion. The importance of the difference measures to come up will be determined by the public senitment that will be aroused, and these will be supported or opposed according to the viewpoint of the various individuals and interests affected. This is but natural, but with all measures fairly presented and dicsuseed, the majority rule should be cheerfully acquiesced in by all. The Republicans have a decided majority in the Legislature, but as this majority is the servant of the people it must make good to continue to hold its job.

A Great Opportunity

Every public spirited citizen should attend the meeting at the borough building this evening for the organization of an associated board of charities. While not many calls for aid are made upon the people of Charleroi, owing to a general prosperous condition of the community, there are occasional cases of distress that deserve and need prompt attention. An organized body to investigate and relieve all calls for aid will greatly facilitate the work, and at the same time be less burdensome to the community.

There are numerous other ways in... board of charities may serve the community besides relieving the distress and material wants of individuals. It can aid in rescue work and help to save wayward girls and juvenile delinquents who for lack of organized and persistent effort recruit the ranks of vice and crime. There is good reason to believe that several young girl recruits from this community have been added the white slave traffic in Pittsburg and vicinity during the past years who might have been saved from this dreadful fate had three been any organized body to look after them and make persistent efforts to divert their wayward inclinations. This is one of the functions of an associated board of charities, and it offers opportunity for a great and noble work.

Licenses Applications.

The applications for license in Washington county that have been filed with the county court brings up anew a social and civic question that agitates the people more or less at this season of the year. This is the matter of distribution in the liquor traffic. In view of the many evils connected with this traffic the law undertakes to regulate it, and this gives rise to the great moral question that divides public sentiment on this issue.

Without entering into any discussion of the moral side of the liquor traffic, it is sufficient to say that a very large percentage of the people pretty generally are consumers of intoixcating liquors and demand that their desires in this respect be gratified. This being the case public policy becomes a matter of distribution. In this State at least public policy seeks to regulate and restrict the distribution of liquor by law, instead of permitting an unrestrained traffic on the part of each consumer. It is the wisdom and utility of this policy which divides public opinion and constitutes the issue on the liquor traffic. The license to sell liquor, for which applications have just been made in this county, constitute the regulations and restrictions that the laws of the State impose.

As these restrictions rest largely with the courts that grant the licenses the judiciary can in a large measure control the liquor traffic within its jurisdicton. In Washington county this surveillance is most strict and exacting. The laws governing the sale and distributon are rigidly enforced, and the traffic is restricted and kept within bounds. This policy of the court is generally approved by the people, who feel that the matter is in safe hands.

FOR CONSTIPATION

A Medicine That Does Not Cost Anything Unless it Cures.

The active medicinal ingredients of Rexall Orderlies, which are odorless, tasteless and colorless, is an entirely new discovery. Combined with other extremely valuable ingredients it forms a perfect bowel regulator, intestinal invigorator and strengthener. Rexall Orderlies are eaten like candy and are notable for their agreeableness to the palate and gentleness of action. They do not cause griping or any disagreeable effect or inconvenience.

Unlike other preparations for a like purpose, they do not create a habit, but instead they overcome the cause of habit acquired through the use of ordinary laxatives, cathartics and harsh physic, and permanently remove the cause of constipation or irregular bowel action.

We will refund your money without argument if they do not do as we say they will. Two sizes, 25c, and 10c. Sold only at our store—The Rexall Store. John W. Carroll.

The Poor.

We all love the poor. It would be entirely unnecessary, if not positively caddish, to say that we hate the poor. But there are two kinds of poor—the individual poor and the collective poor. It is not the individual poor that we love; it is the collective poor. It is not the poor that we know and see, but the poor that we do not know and have neither time nor inclination to look at. We are afraid if we see them we shall cease to love them. We never say, "God bless the iceman, or the coal heaver, or the motorman." For them we find our execrations for not contributing to our comfort just so and so and so.

It is with great fervor, however, that we can say, "God bless the poor," because the poor do not interfere with our comfort to the slightest degree.—Life.

A Deadly Weapon.

There is a horrible weapon favored by certain of the hill tribes in the Ghauts of western Asia, which consists of four sharp, curved blades hidden under the fingers and securely held in place by rings passing over two of them. With such a contrivance Shivaji, the Maratha hero, is credited with having disemboweled his Mohammedan overlord when making a pretense of rendering him his humble submission. The vagnaks ("tiger's claws"), as they are called, are distinctly more brutal than their western prototype, the "knuckle duster."—Wide World Magazine.

Its Destination.

"Here's a nickel," said a thrifty housewife to a tramp at her door. "Now, what are you going to do with it?"

"Well, mum," replied the hungry man, "if I buy a touring car I shan't have enough left to pay my chauffeur; if I purchase a steam yacht there won't be enough left to defray the cost of manning her, so I guess, mum, I'll get a schooner and handle it myself."

PILES DISAPPEAR

So Does Eczema, Salt Rheum, Ulcers, Old Sores and Carbuncles

Under the influence of San Cura Ointment surprising cures are made so quickly that they seem like miracles.

Old sores that have caused the most intense suffering in body and mind, and that have failed to yield to any other treatment are quickly healed after the poison has been drawn out by San Cura Ointment.

Stubborn cases of piles like those of Rev. W. F. Gilbert of Titusville, Pa., vanish before this marvelous antiseptic Ointment. Mr. Gilbert writes:

"For 20 years I suffered with bleeding and itching piles; at times I was confined to the house for more than a month. Two years ago I began using San Cura Ointment and one 50c jar made a firm and permanent cure, and have not been troubled since."

San Cura Ointment is guaranteed by W. F. Hennings, who is the agent in Charleroi to cure any of the above named diseases or money back. It instantly kills all pain from burns, cuts and bruises, draws out the poison and heals in a short time. 25 and 50 cents a jar at Hennings.

GOOD BABY SOAP

San Cura is a healing and antiseptic soap; just the soothing kind that baby needs. It keeps the pores free from all impurities and prevents fevers, rashes and other infantile diseases. Best for anyone's skin, cures pimples and blackheads, cleans the complexion. 25 cents a large cake at W. F. Hennings.

Her Evidence.

"I had a colored woman before me as a complaining witness," said a criminal court judge. "She had a man held for trial by a city magistrate on the charge that he had attacked her with a pair of scissors. 'He mout' near gouge mah eye out, jedge,' she said to me. 'Jes' come at me lak a lion, he did, a-roarin', suh. He poke me in de face wiv dem scissors, jedge, not once, but for four or five times. He jes' cut up my face lak it was a yard of ribbon, jedge. The magistrate what held him to dis heah court says he nevah did hear tell of no more dangerous man.'

"Well, I looked her over. She had a wide, smooth, yellow face that didn't have a mark on it. I told her to repeat her story, and she went all over it again, telling how the man had slashed her face with that pair of scissors.

"'But, madam,' I said, 'there isn't a mark on your face.'

"'Marks!' said she indignantly. 'Marks! What I care for marks, less me ask you dat? I got witnesses, I tell you.'"—New York Cor. Cincinnati Times-Star.

She Had Courage.

A self possessed young woman who knew no French strolled into one of the larger downtown cafes. She spoke to the waiter in that decisive tone which distinguishes the initiated and glanced over the French bill of fare with the nonchalant air of a Parisienne.

"I'll have," she began firmly as she plunged into the sea of French dishes—"I'll have—let me see. Oh, yes, I'll have some bisque tortoni, a sultana roll, pommes de terre and a little of that fromage. And, garcon, you might as well bring me a cup of coffee."

The waiter gasped. He started to speak, but the young woman froze him with one of those icy stares peculiar to the thoroughly sophisticated.

And the order arrived—two kinds of ices, boiled potatoes and a piece of cheese. But she ate it as if she had been used to that sort of diet all her life.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Stories on Doctors.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle told several good stories of old fashioned practitioners he knew. There was one man, he said, who never used to wash out the half emptied bottles returned to him, but emptied them into one huge jar, from which he dispensed this mixture of medicines to his more obscure patients. "It is like grapeshot," he said; "one of them is sure to hit." There was another man who used to say, "When my patients are alive I don't know what is the matter with them and when they die I don't know whether they are dead." That was like the medical man who said to a lady whose husband he had been attending, "Madam, I have a very strong belief that your husband is dead, but if it is your wish I have no objection to a consultation."

Cute Little Girl.

One day while Katherine's mother was ill a cup of beef tea was prepared for her, but Katherine fancied it and drank almost all of it. Her father was about to scold her when her mother said:

"Never mind; it does me just as much good to see her drink it."

Shortly after this a dose of castor oil was prepared for Katherine, and she poured it into her doll's mouth.

"Why Katherine," said her astonished mother, "what did you do that for?"

"That's all right," Katherine replied, "it will do me just as much good if she drinks it."—Boston Herald.

The Danger of Criticism.

If you simply cannot help criticising at least be careful in selecting your victim.

A magazine editor to whom O. Henry had promised a story many times without delivering it sat down one day and wrote him thus:

"My Dear O. Henry—If I do not receive that story from you by noon today I am going to put on my No. 11 shoes and come down and kick you down your own stairs. I never fail to keep my promises."

Whereupon O. Henry replied.

"I, too, would keep my promises if I could do all my work with my feet."—Chicago Tribune.

The Battle of a Week.

The battle of a week was the great conflict at Tours in which Charles Martel overthrew the Saracens, A. D. 732. The members of the Saracen army are variously estimated at from 400,000 to 700,000, and the historians say that 375,000 were killed on the field. It is suspected that these figures are a gross exaggeration, but it is certain that few battles of history have been either so bloody or so decisive.

In the Mining Business.

"I think you said, Rastus, that you had a brother in the mining business in the west?"

"Yeh, boss, that's right."

"What kind of mining—gold mining, silver mining, copper mining?"

"No, sah, none o' those; calcimining."—Everybody's.

The Angel.

What To Do —FOR— Sickly Children

Letters from Mothers

"I wish I could induce every mother, who has a delicate, sickly child, to try your delicious Cod Liver and Iron Tonic VINOL. It restored our little daughter to health and strength after everything else had failed."—MRS. C. W. STUMP, Canton, Ohio.

Mrs. F. P. Skonnard, of Minneapolis, Minn., writes, "I want to recommend VINOL to every mother who has a weak or sickly child. My little boy was sickly, pale, and had no appetite for two years. I tried different medicines and doctors without benefit, but thanks to VINOL, he is a well and healthy boy to-day."

C. Allen, of New Bedford, Mass., writes, "My two puny children gained rapidly in flesh and strength in a very short time after taking VINOL."

We positively know VINOL will build up little ones and make them healthy, strong and robust. Try one bottle, and if you are not satisfied, we will return your money.

EPIGRAMS OF A QUEEN.

Witticisms of Maria Leczinska, the Wife of Louis XV.

The wife of Louis the Well Beloved had more need than most of the consolations of wisdom and philosophy. That she possessed them both in a marked degree is quite evident. "To great goodness Maria Leczinska joined solid information," says Imbert de Saint-Amand in "The Court of Louis XV." "She knew six languages—Polish, French, Italian, German, Swedish, Latin. Men of letters were struck by the shrewdness of her judgment on things of the mind. Several of her maxims have been preserved, which attest a lofty soul and a profound knowledge of the human heart. Here are some of them: 'We ought not to reflect more on the faults of others than will suffice to preserve ourselves from them.' 'Human wisdom teaches us to conceal our pride; religion alone destroys it.' 'To live peaceably in society we must open our eyes to the qualities which please us and shut them on the follies and caprices which shock us.' 'The women who pique themselves most on knowing what it is allowable for them to be ignorant of are those who care least about instructing themselves concerning what it is shameful not to know.' 'Many princes have regretted when dying that they had made war; we never see any who repented of having loved peace.' 'Good kings are slaves, and their people are free.' 'The only thing which can make amends for the slavery of the throne is the pleasure of doing some good.' 'In politics, as in morals, the shortest way to make men happy is to endeavor to make them virtuous.'"

The Pillory.

The pillory in England was abolished as a punishment, except for perjury, in 1815 and was totally abolished in 1837. The last person to suffer at the Old Bailey was one Peter Bossy, for perjury, June 22, 1830. Notwithstanding the fact that this mode of punishment was supposed to be only for the lighter offenses, it often happened that the pillory meant death to those placed in it, the culprit frequently being stoned to death by the heartless mob.—New York American.

Next Best Thing.

"Say, Mayme, did you ever have any turtle soup?" asked a rawboned youth of the girl beside him.

"No," admitted the maiden; "but," added she, with the conscious dignity of one who has not been lacking in social experience, "I've been where it was."—Lippincott's.

Westminster Hall.

Westminster hall, England's old hall of the king's justice, is one of the world's notable historical shrines. Built four centuries before Columbus sailed for America, burned, restored, remodeled, it has seen more history in the making than perhaps any other building west of Rome. Here some of the early parliaments met, and here the second Edward was expelled from his throne. Here Richard II. was deposed, Charles I. condemned and Cromwell hailed as lord protector, whose head, if the legend is authentic, was afterward exposed from one of the hall's pinnacles. Westminster hall was the scene of the trial of Warren Hastings. In it sentence of death was pronounced on William Wallace, Sir Thomas More, Somerset, Essex, Strafford and Guy Fawkes.—New York World.

Bad Manners.

The two women stopped in front of a dentist's showcase.

"There, mamma," said the younger woman, pointing, "I want a set just like that."

"Hush, my child!" commanded her mother. "Don't you know that it's vulgar to pick your teeth in the street?"

A Bright Youth.

She (archly)—Whom should you call the prettiest girl in the room? (looking about him)—I'm. Well, to tell the truth, there isn't a pretty girl in the place.

A MAN'S WHISKERS.

They Should Not Be Renovated With the Shoebrush.

If men would devote as much loving care to their whiskers as women do to their hair they would contribute greatly to increasing the dignity of the sex.

A woman wouldn't think of coming downtown without having her hair properly arranged. She combs it, and fusses with it, and pads it out with rats, and puts wire cages under it, and runs ribbons through it, and she is a vision of loveliness when she appears in the busy haunts of men.

But a man gives his whiskers no attention further than to brush the eggshells or clam chowder out of them with the shoebrush. It never seems to occur to him that his whiskers might be made beautiful if he would devote one-half the time to them that a woman gives to her hair. He might easily have made a wire cage to attach to his chin, and then he could weave his whiskers around it in captivating styles and tie the ends together with a pink or blue ribbon.

The alfalfa editor gets tired of seeing the same old fashions in whiskers when it would be so easy to devise new and striking ways of wearing them.

There should be a whiskers club in Emporia. If such an organization were formed and the members held weekly meetings to exchange ideas and compare notes the results would soon be apparent. The town's whiskers would soon become distinctive, and their reputation would cover the country.

Let us have a new deal in spinach.—Emporia Gazette.

When the Hen Crows.

Willsford in his "Nature Secrets" (1658) writes:

"Beasts eating greedily and more than they used to do prenotes foul weather, and all small cattle that seem to rejoyce with playing and sporting themselves foreshews rain. Oxen and all kinds of neat, if you do at any time observe them to hold up their heads and snuffle in the air or lick their hooves or their bodies against the hair, expect then rainy weather. Asses or mules rubbing often their ears or braying much more than usually they are accustomed presages rain. Hogs crying and running up and down with hay or litter in their mouths foreshews a storm to be near at hand. The little sable beast (called a fern) if much thirsting after blood it argues rain. The cock if he crows in the daytime very much or at sunsetting or when he is at roost at unusual hours, as at 9 or 10, expect some change of weather and that suddenly, but from fair to foul or the contrary. But when the hen crows good men expect a storm within doors and without."

Lured Into Bathing.

In a railway carriage that the other day a London medical man told a good story which had come within his own experience. A mother was frequently bringing her child to him for treatment, but the doctor could discover nothing amiss except its need of a good wash. She was certain the infant was suffering from some terrible complaint and begged the doctor to do his best. He prescribed a daily wash with the water in which potatoes had been peeled. Never suspecting that this was merely a ruse to get the child washed, the mother followed the instructions to the letter. Rosy cheeks appeared, and a clean, healthy looking child gladdened the mother's heart. She sounded the doctor's praises everywhere and advised other mothers to test the efficacy of potato water. It never occurred to her that precisely the same result would have followed the daily application of soap and water.

Some will always be above others. Destroy the inequality of today and it will appear again tomorrow.—Emerson

PURE GLYCERIN.

It Is a Queer Substance Endowed With Peculiar Properties.

One of the great advantages of glycerin in its chemical employment is the fact that it neither freezes nor evaporates under any ordinary temperature. No perceptible loss by evaporation has been detected at a temperature less than 200 degrees F., but if heated intensely it decomposes with a smell that few persons find themselves able to endure. It burns with a pale flame, similar to that from alcohol, if heated to about 300 degrees and then ignited. Its nonevaporative qualities make the compound of much use as a vehicle for holding pigments and colors, as in stamping and typewriter ribbons, carbon papers and the like.

If the pure glycerin be exposed for a long time to a freezing temperature it crystallizes with the appearance of sugar candy, but these crystals being once melted it is almost an impossibility to get them again into the congealed state. If a little water be added to the glycerin no crystallization will take place, though under a sufficient degree of cold the water will separate and form crystals, amid which the glycerin will remain in its natural state of fluidity. If suddenly subjected to intense cold pure glycerin will form a gummy mass which cannot be entirely hardened or crystallized. Altogether it is quite a peculiar substance.

A Spanish Ship Treasure.

In 1762 the largest bulk of treasure ever taken from a ship at sea was brought into London. It was the whole of the cargo of the Spanish ship Hermione, captured on May 21 by H. M. S. Active. The Hermione surrendered to the Active without an action, and the treasure was landed at Portsmouth and conveyed to London in twenty decorated wagons, with British colors over Spanish and an escort party of sailors. The strange procession reached Lon-

LOVELY COMPLEXION

A Clear Skin and Bright Eyes are Easy to Get

All the beauty creams in creation won't improve your complexion if your stomach is out of order.

Belching of gas and heartburn mean bad food in the stomach. Bad food means bad blood and bad blood means a bad complexion.

Try Mi-o-na stomach tablets for stomach misery, biliousness, dizziness and indigestion. They relieve in a few minutes; they make rich red blood. They are guaranteed by Piper Bros. to cure or money back.

Read what a Kansas woman says: "I had been doctoring a year for stomach trouble and found nothing that did as much good as Mi-o-na I only have the second box and they have relieved all pain in my stomach. For stomach trouble, indigestion Mi-o-na can't be beaten. Mi-o-na has done a world of good for me when doctors failed."—Mrs. Cordelia B. Mann, 207, 11th St. Junction City, Kan.

Is the Tuberculosis Crusade Losing Ground?

Despite all the efforts being made by advocates of fresh air and egg-and-milk treatments, the number of new cases has not been noticeably decreased.

Write to us and ask to be referred to Clergymen, Priests, men and women who took Eckman's Alterative and are today well and strong without a trace of tuberculosis—pronounced so by physicians. Some of them took the Alterative 10 years ago when doctors said they would not live 10 weeks.

Could anything be fairer to yourself and those who love you and would do anything to restore you to health? If you are skeptical—investigate us, our medicine, our advertised statements. Write to those who have sent in affidavits and testimonials telling how Eckman's Alterative cured them. Here is one:

5323 Girard Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Gentlemen: "In the winter of 1903, I had an attack of Grippe, followed by Pneumonia and later by Consumption. I grew steadily worse. In the winter of 1904 I had cough, night sweats, fever and raised quantities of awful looking stuff and later, I had many hemorrhages; at one time, three in three successive days. Milk and eggs became so distasteful I could keep nothing down. Three physicians treated me. I was ordered to the mountains, but did not go. Eckman's Alterative was recommended by a friend. After taking a small quantity I had the first quiet night's sleep for weeks. My improvement was marked from the first. I gained strength and weight and appetite. I never had another hemorrhage and my cough gradually lessened until entirely gone. I am perfectly well. Everything I say here can be verified by my family and friends."
